User comments are not edited for accuracy, however, we may filter or report commentary or content that contains spam, profanity, disrespectful, prohibited, or otherwise objectionable material.

In submitting content to our social media page, the user certifies that the submission is voluntary and in their own words. The user grants Adams County Health Department unlimited rights to use, modify, or remove content, ideas, concepts, designs, or creative elements in any media or forum of our choosing, without compensation or credit.
